

Child Psychology Minor

Degree Type Minor

The child psychology minor is for non-psychology majors and allows students to study this specific sub-discipline in psychology. The primary goal of this minor is to deepen students' understanding of children and adolescents and to facilitate work in areas with children and families. Students outside of the psychology major may take this minor. The minor in child psychology minor will consists of 20 credits of psychology/child development courses.

Requirements:

Item #	Title	Credits
PSY 101	Introduction to Psychology	4.0
CHI 101	Child Growth and Development	4.0
	PSY 321 or PSY 322	4
PSY 371	Child and Adolescent Psychopathology	4.0
	One CHI 300-400-level child development elective	4