

Political Studies Minor

Degree Type Minor

The political studies minor explores the ways that communities allocate the power to make decisions. The courses focus on the analysis of both national and international structures, past and present, creating a global perspective that is an excellent complement to a major program of study.

Requirements:

The Political Studies Minor requires 16 credit hours of coursework:

Item #	Title	Credits
	Four credits chosen from POL 100, 101	4
	Four credits chosen from POL 202, 203, 204	4
	Eight credits at the POL 300-level	8