

ART 330 : Painting II

At this level, students begin to use painting as a more personal, creative means of expression. Beginning level skills are developed toward greater technical proficiency and personal visual formulation. Students examine historical and theoretical trends and contemporary methodologies and strive to apply them to their work.

Credits 4

Prerequisite Courses

ART 230: Painting I

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring