

MUS 410/411 : Applied Music: Vocal and Instrumental IV

Individual instruction facilitates the development of technical abilities on a given instrument. Students may select from the following: piano, voice, flute, violin, cello, guitar or another instrument upon request, subject to the availability of instructors. Level of instruction and credits are dependent on ability and are assigned after an initial assessment; no audition is necessary. Course content varies from term to term. A fee is charged per credit.

Credits 1-4

Prerequisites

- Successful completion of one course from the previous level.

Semester Offered

Offered fall/spring