

NUR 222 : Fundamentals of Nursing

This clinical course introduces the role of provider of nursing care, with a focus on promotion of health and normative aging in individuals. Topics include basic nursing care skills, therapeutic nursing interventions, nursing care plans, medication administration, therapeutic communication and nursing documentation.

Credits 4

Prerequisite Courses

BIO 205: Human Anatomy and Physiology I \(+lab\)

BIO 206: Human Anatomy and Physiology II \(+lab\)

BIO 207: Microbiology \(+lab\)

NUR 212: Health Assessment

Co-Requisite Courses

NUR 207: Pharmacology

Semester Offered

Offered spring