

NUR 313 : Maternal-Child Nursing

This clinical course introduces the role of care provider for families experiencing normative childbearing and childbirth. Topics include prenatal development, neonatal assessment, family development, reproductive health, labor and birth and related nursing interventions in maternal-infant care.

Credits 4

Proficiency

WI

Prerequisite Courses

NUR 222: Fundamentals of Nursing

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring