

GBUS 501 : Marketing Strategy and Decision-Making

Leaders of successful companies understand the importance of marketing strategy and key marketing decisions. This course explores the industry/product life cycle and appropriate competitive strategies and then takes those decisions deeper to include the alignment of business strategy with value disciplines, core purpose, core values, core competencies and the marketing mix.

Credits 2

Semester Offered

Offered fall