

SM 428 : Senior Seminar

This course brings together all aspects of sport management building on the foundation and specialized course prerequisites in the Exercise and Sport Sciences and Business Administration programs. Course content includes organizing, motivating, planning, staffing, and supervising. Emphasis is on the practical application of the sport management knowledge base.

Credits 2

Prerequisites

- Senior standing.

Semester Offered

Offered fall