

ART 331 : Painting III

Building on knowledge gained in ART 330, students begin to use painting as a more personal, creative means of expression. Beginning level skills are developed toward greater technical proficiency and personal visual formulation. Students examine historical and theoretical trends and contemporary methodologies and strive to apply them to their work. The student will continue to improve in techniques, content and level of sophistication.

Credits 4

Prerequisite Courses

ART 330: Painting II

Semester Offered

Offered fall and spring