

BUS 343 : Real Estate

This course covers the basics of real estate and introduces students to real estate terminology. It discusses types of real estate, relevant legal issues involved in owning real estate and real estate contracts. The course also explains the advantages of owning real estate as well as the requirements to be licensed to sell real estate.

Credits 2

Prerequisites

- Any math proficiency.

Semester Offered

Offered spring of even-numbered years