

ARH 321 : History of Photography

The course surveys photography from the early 19th century to the present. Structured around five time periods, the course focuses on several specific photographers, images and styles. It also examines parallel historical developments and their influence on photography.

Credits 4

Prerequisites

- Completion of 3 Liberal Education Core Areas.

Semester Offered

Offered fall of odd-numbered years