

Graphic Design Minor

Degree Type Minor

The minor in graphic design provides an introduction to graphic design concepts, principles and practices through a sampling of graphic design studio courses. The program seeks to develop students' creative and critical thinking in conjunction with their technical and professional skills, thereby complementing the learning in their major areas of study.

Requirements:

Item #	Title	Credits
GD 125	Design and Digital Media Foundations	4.0
GD 213	Visual Communication	4.0
GD 312	Typography	4.0
	Two additional graphic design 300-level courses	8